Burton Morgan Foundation Donates $10,000 to Rigali Barrett Scholarship

HUDSON, OH – August 15, 2006. The Burton D. Morgan Foundation is pleased to announce a donation of $10,000 to benefit the Dolores Rigali Barrett Scholarship, awarded to select high school students attending Hill-Murray School near St. Paul, Minnesota.

Burton D. Morgan (1916-2003) was founder of Morgan Adhesives Company – among many other successful business ventures. The mission of his Foundation, established in 1967 and run by an independent Board of Trustees, is to “strengthen the free enterprise system by investing in organizations and institutions that foster the entrepreneurial spirit” – a spirit that Mr. Morgan believed was America’s greatest asset.

The Foundation’s mission is consistent with the objectives of the Dolores Rigali Barrett Scholarship. Established in March 2006, this academic scholarship was established in memory of Mrs. Barrett, mother of 7 children, all of whom graduated from Hill-Murray School – a well-respected, private Catholic school near St. Paul. Mrs. Barrett was committed to both her Italian heritage and Catholic education – and continually emphasized the importance of studying and working hard in order to get ahead. Accordingly, all 7 Barrett children used their Hill-Murray educations as a springboard to significant success in both their college and professional careers – with Hill-Murray School being a common denominator of their success.

According to Mark Robeson, a member of Burton Morgan Foundation’s Board of Trustees, “we’re very proud to partner with the Barrett family on such a worthy cause, and I’m personally excited to see the legacies of both Mr. Morgan and Mrs. Barrett joined together in order to support high-quality education.” Added Mark Barrett, one of Dolores’ 7 children, “my family is humbled by the generosity of the Burton Morgan Foundation. This donation will go a long way toward helping students to attend Hill-Murray, which will better enable them to aim high and achieve their goals. We’re grateful to both Mr. Morgan and his Foundation for their generous commitment and support.”
